Examinations, London, has written on the 12th March 1940 that it is too late to send the necessary work and question papers and that the entries for the L. C. C. Spring Examinations of 1940 will therefore have to be held over until the Autumn Examinations.

In the circumstances stated above the candidates who have appeared for the L. C. C. Spring Examinations of 1940 are instructed to take the Autumn Examinations of 1940 in November 1940.
